no detailed description available for christ our mother of mercy of the life and work of jesus the apostle john said even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written john 21 25 acknowledging the size of the task as well as its importance dr john f walvoord has written this systematic presentation of the person and work of christ from eternity past to eternity future beginning with an analysis of modern trends in the study of christology dr walvoord shows that contemporary christology has in many respects confused rather than clarified the extended revelation of the word of god the word of god forms the solid basis for dr walvoord s entire study analyzing the old testament he shows christ in its history typology and prophecy then in the new testament he examines the life and work of the incarnate christ the doctrines of atonement redemption propitiation and reconciliation are thoroughly and clearly discussed the book concludes with an examination of the present and future work of christ thus giving the reader a comprehensive study of christology classical trinitarianism holds that every action of trinity in the world is inseparable that is the divine persons are equally active in every operation but then in what way did the father create the world through christ how can only the son be incarnate die and be resurrected why does christ have to ascend before the spirit may come these and many other questions pose serious objections to the doctrine of inseparable operations in the first book length treatment of this doctrine adonis vidu takes up these questions and offers a conceptual and dogmatic analysis of this essential axiom engaging with recent and historical objections taking aim at a common soft interpretation of the inseparability rule according to which the divine persons merely cooperate and work in concert with one another vidu argues for the retrieval of hard inseparability which emphasizes the unity of divine action primarily drawing from the patristic and medieval traditions having probed the biblical foundations of the rule and recounted the story of its emergence in nascent trinitarianism and its neglect in modern theology vidu builds a constructive case for its retrieval the rule is then tested precisely on the battlegrounds that were thought to have witnessed its defeat the doctrines of creation incarnation atonement ascension and the indwelling of the spirit what emerges is a constructive account of theology in which the recovery of this dogmatic rule shines fresh light on ancient doctrines in the incarnation as god s first intention edwin chr van driel advocates a transformative perspective on the incarnation proposing that god s decision to become incarnate was not a response to human sin but was instead god s first and foundational intention engaging the historical and theological roots of this supralapsarian before the fall christology van driel a leading scholar on the topic invites readers to reconsider long held views on god s engagement with creation with clarity and depth van driel unpacks how understanding the incarnation as god s original purpose reshapes the doctrines of creation election salvation and eschatology his insights offer a fresh framework for the church s mission in today s world suggesting that god s presence with us is not merely a remedy for human fallenness but rather god s first intention and ultimate goal for creation written for students theologians and all who seek a deeper understanding of god s relation to the world this book challenges readers to see the incarnation god s dwelling among us as god s central purpose how the lives of the companions of jesus become the canvas upon which god paints a picture of liberation goizueta unites this book around the disjunction between the christian claim that christ s life death and resurrection are the key to universal human meaning and our increased consciousness of the diverse pluralistic world in which we live how can a christian proclaim his message when the rationales for so much of the violence we see around us are grounded in religious principles the credibility of christ s claims rests on the evidence presented by those persons who have lived out those claims the holy spirit and christian experience is a work of christian theology that reflects on the emotional dimensions of christian religious belief it draws on insights from outside of the field of christian theology as well as classic theological figures to argue for the importance of paying theological attention to affect and emotion because jesus came not to be served but to serve mk 10 45 his mystical body the church is essentially a servant church it s precisely through this service that she carries out her mission the ancient diaconate was instituted and has been restored in our time not simply to stand alongside priestly religious and lay ministry but to imbue and empower each with a renewed sense of service indeed the greek word diakonia which is translated in english as service can also be translated into the latin word ministerium translated in english as ministry thus when we look at episcopal ministry priestly ministry religious ministry or lay ministry service is essential to all service is not something we do but someone we give our very selves it is an act of love rooted in a divine love already poured out for us this book provides a radical but thoroughly consistent rethinking of the christian life that takes up the tradition and builds upon it in a way that is both old and new about the author deacon dominic cerrato ph d is editor of osv s the deacon magazine executive director of diaconal ministries and director of the diaconate for the diocese of joliet he also offers spiritual direction through the pastoral solutions institute formerly he served in full time pastoral ministry specializing in adult faith formation in 2020 he was appointed by pope francis to the international pontifical commission on women and the diaconate he and his wife judith have been married for 39 years and they have ten children and many grandchildren
